Congratulations to our girl's football team who reached the final of the Meath Cumann na mBunscol competition. They lost out to Drumbaragh in the final. We are very proud of the girls for getting so far in this year's competition. We especially want to thank our great trainers Pauric & Treasa.

Sponsored Walk was held in the beautiful sunshine yesterday. €1226 was raised through sponsorship. Thank you to all who contributed and accompanied us on our walk and also to Elaine Daly and all at Clonabreany House for the lovely refreshments.

Well Done to Ms Farrelly and her team of gardeners for their "Pride of Place School Gardening Award" which they were awarded yesterday. To date we have achieved levels 1 – 4 and will be working on Level 5 (highest possible award) next year.

School Tours: Notes will be issued from class teachers regarding venues, costs, dates etc in the coming days.

Standardised Testing: Drumcondra testing will take place next week and the week after for classes 1-6th. Please ensure your child is present over the next fortnight to complete their tests. Results will be recorded on the pupils report card.

Sport:

- Rugby sessions for all classes are ongoing.
- Congratulations to 5th & 6th class who completed their cycling training and are all competent cyclists now.

Important Dates:

- June Bank Holiday: School closed Friday 1st & Monday 4th June
- School Summer Holidays: Friday 22nd June at 12 noon.
